BRAND OVERVIEW

“Nike connects emotionally with consumers beyond just products”

- Global leader in sportswear, footwear and athletic apparel.
- Targets athletes, fitness enthusiasts, and youth culture worldwide.
- Positioned as a brand of performance, inspiration, and innovation.
- Strong emotional branding focused on motivation and achievement.

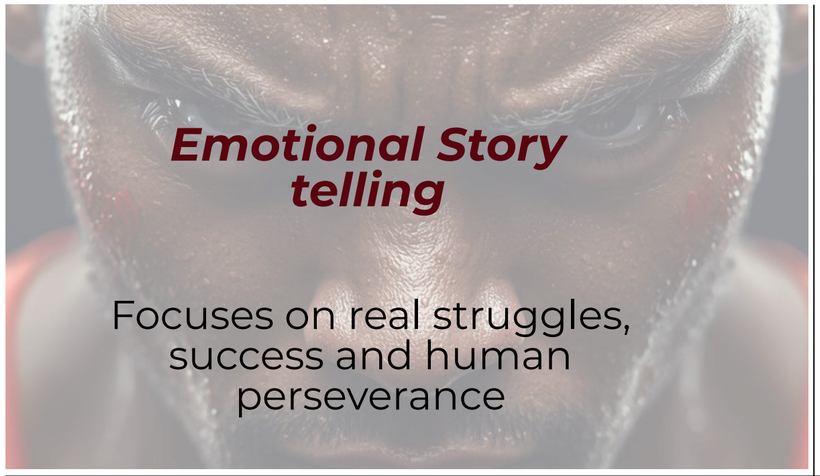

CAMPAIGN OVERVIEW

“Nike partnered with athletes like Michael Jordan to amplify emotional story telling and aspirations”

- Launched in 1988 as Nike’s iconic global slogan
- Features real athletes and inspirational story telling
- Focuses on motivation, determination, and pushing limits
- Executed across TV, digital platforms and Social media

“One of the most recognizable and enduring slogans in marketing history”

Emotional Story telling

Focuses on real struggles, success and human perseverance

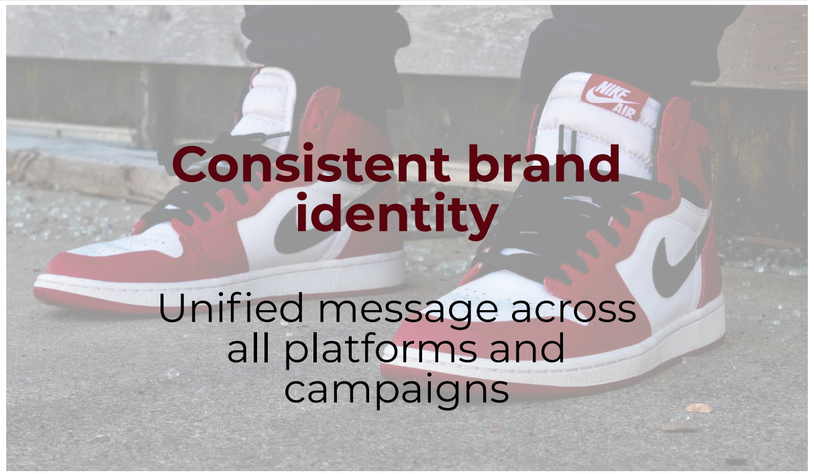

Athlete Endorsements

Uses global icons to build credibility and aspirations

Motivational Messaging

Simple, powerful message: encouraging actions and confidence

Consistent brand identity

Unified message across all platforms and campaigns

“Nike’s strategy focuses on emotional connection rather than product promotion”

Strong emotional connections with the audiences through storytelling

Clear and consistent brand message across all platforms

Use of inspirational athletes increased trust and aspirations

Simple yet powerful slogan made it globally memorable

“The campaign succeeded because it sold a feeling, not just a product”

RESULTS & IMPACT

“The campaign transformed Nike from a product-based brand into a lifestyle brand”

“The slogan has remained in use for over 30+ years, making it one of the longest-running campaigns in history”

01 "Just do it" helped increase brand awareness globally across 100+ countries

02 Strengthened Nike’s brand loyalty and emotional positioning

03 Nike’s revenue grew from $877M (1988) to $39B+ (2019)

04 Influenced modern advertising strategies across multiple industries

MY ANALYSIS & KEY TAKE AWAYS

“Marketing success is driven by emotional connection, consistency and evolving digital engagement”

- Nike successfully builds emotional branding by focusing on motivation rather than product features
- Opportunity to use first-party data from apps like Nike Trainning Club to create hyper-personalized campaigns.
- “Nike can drive deeper engagement through gamified fitness challenges and community-based digital experiences targeting Gen Z”
- The strategy demonstrates the power of consistent story telling in long-term brand building

WHAT WOULD I DO DIFFERENTLY ?

- Shifts from mass messaging - micro-targeted storytelling.
- Use user-generated content (UGC) alongside athlete endorsements
- Build interactive campaigns (AR filters, fitness challenges, gamification)

THANK YOU
